

30 Crozon Crescent, Sligo, Co. Sligo, F91 AKX6, Ireland,

Residential I

Sold | €235,000

Four bedroom semi detached house on a generous site. Excellent off-street parking to the front and has downstairs bedroom which makes it a very attractive house.

This four-bedroom owner occupied property has the benefit of having three bedrooms at first floor and one bedroom at ground floor with direct access to the WC. The ground floor bedroom could also be used as additional living space if required.

The kitchen area was extended to the side and there is a glazed porch to the front and rear. The property has a lovely south facing aspect to the front.

The house has PVC double glazed windows and doors throughout & has oil fired central heating. It has a wonderful extension to the side of the property, allowing for a downstairs bedroom and kitchen.

Location

Crozon Crescent is a small cluster of both semi detached and detached properties which is within walking distance of Sligo Town Centre. It also has the convenience of shops, schools etc. all close by. This is a very convenient location set close to the Caltragh roundabout and also to Pearse Road.
